NJWLA announces the WILL Fundraising Project at Summer Networking Breakfast

NEWARK - July 19, 2007: Sills, Cummis, Epstein & Gross, PC hosted the NJWLA Summer Networking Breakfast at their Newark office. The morning presented members with an opportunity to get involved in Summer Networking (meet and share ideas with fellow women lawyers), Corporate Sponsorship, NJWLA Committees and more....

Kirsten Scheurer Branigan, President NJWLA, welcomed the members to the Networking Breakfast. She thanked all that have been so heavily involved in the membership drive, their efforts resulted in a tremendous growth - from 80 (mostly leadership) in January to 259 members to date!

Ms. Branigan announced the exciting WILL Fundraising Project (Women's Initiative & Leaders in Law). With this project NJWLA members WILL advance and retain Women in Law, WILL be involved, WILL contribute and WILL succeed. This project encourage members to be involved in the NJWLA Committees, assist with the NJWLA Partner Program to raise funds. Member involvement WILL make a difference to advance and retain women in the legal profession in New Jersey.

NJWLA is planning exciting events for 2007/8: The NJWLA 2008 Platinum Gala, honoring women on the bench, in government, corporate and law firms, will be the premier event for 2008. Members will soon be receiving more information and a nomination form. Think about the women you would like to honor!
